Independence Day Celebration Report

Date: 13th August 2024

Time: 8:00 AM

Venue: Classroom 901

Organized by: Department of Political Science, NSS Unit, and IQAC

The event was aimed at commemorating India's independence, fostering a spirit of patriotism, and educating participants about the sacrifices of freedom fighters.

Final Flow of Events:

- Introduction (Welcoming everyone):
- Rules and Explanation of the Activity: The event's host explained the structure and activities to be conducted throughout the session, ensuring clarity on how participants could engage with each segment.
- Freedom Fighter Trivia: A trivia session focused on India's freedom struggle was held, where participants answered questions related to key freedom fighters, their contributions, and pivotal moments in the struggle for independence. This was a great opportunity to refresh everyone's knowledge about the nation's history.
- Explanation of the Next Activity: open segment where they were invited to participate and express their thoughts on the significance of Independence Day. This interactive session allowed for personal reflections and increased engagement.
- Music Mania: The atmosphere was further energized by a musical segment where popular patriotic songs were played. This brought a sense of unity and national pride to the gathering.
- Applause for All Participants:
- Vote of Thanks:
- National Anthem:

The event ended with a heartfelt rendition of the National Anthem, reinforcing the spirit of patriotism and unity.
